

SURPRISE SPRUNG BY PROSECUTION IN MURDER TRIAL

State Rests Case Tuesday Morn- ing Shortly After Opening of Court

DEFENSE'S WITNESSES SWORN BY CLERK LARSON

Trial Will Probably Come to Speedy Termination and Jury May Get Case by Thursday Evening--The Day's Testimony.

Promptly at 9 o'clock Judge Mansfield took his seat on the bench where he is presiding at the trial of Montelle Watha, who is charged with murder in the first degree. Balliff Legge opened court and a short delay was caused by the slight tardiness of Judge Littleford and Charles L. Flory of counsel for the defense.

MAN DOLD.

Max Dold was the first witness called by the state and was examined by Mr. Miller:

"Have lived in Newark all my life; am a boiler maker by trade; was in Newark on the evening of July 8th last and near the county jail; heard the defendant, Watha, make a speech; heard him ask how many Eagles there were in the crowd and if there were any to 'come on'; the crowd cheered him as he got down off the stone."

"Was there any attempt by Watha to go toward the jail when he got down off the stone?"

Objected to by defense and objection sustained.

"Don't remember what Watha did after he got down off the stone; he started toward the jail and then came back."

"This last sentence was ruled out of the record by Judge Mansfield upon objection by defense, which objection was sustained."

Cross-examined by Judge Littleford:

"All I heard defendant say was 'if there are any Eagles in the crowd, come on'; also heard him say he was against mob law; he was the only colored man I saw; saw very few women and some children; on the other edge of the crowd the disposition of the crowd was to jeer, laugh and make fun of him; all was silent immediately around the defendant; did not see him after he got down off the stone except once, when he was in the crowd; went back to the jail and saw the crowd attempting to get into the jail; did not see the defendant in this attempt; he said something to the effect that he didn't believe in lynching, but in this case he did."

KENNETH BLACK.

Kenneth Black examined by Mr. Miller, a colored man was next called and sworn by Clerk Larson:

"I know Montelle Watha, and saw him on the afternoon of July 8th last, several of us were in the crowd, five or six at least; I had heard that Wm. Howard had been shot; we were talking about the excitement ensuing upon the shooting of Howard and upon this and another; Watha was in the crowd and engaged in the conversation."

No cross-examination.

LANSING SUTTON.

Lansing Sutton, another colored man, was next sworn, and took the stand and was examined by Mr. Miller:

"Lived in Newark about 12 years; know Montelle Watha; saw him in front of the Adams Express office early in the afternoon of July 8th last; we all had a conversation about the dry detectives and all about the riots of the day; I knew at that time that Howard had been shot but don't remember any conversation upon this subject."

Judge Littleford objected to this testimony saying that what the state wanted to do with this testimony was to show that the defendant knew Howard was shot, because the other members of the group who were talking had knowledge of the fact of the shooting of Howard; which fact did not show that the defendant himself knew that Howard was shot. Judge Littleford said that he did not object to the testimony as to the time of Howard's being shot, as the defense made no claim that Howard was not shot, nor did the defense dispute the time of this occurrence, but Judge Littleford said that the purpose of the state was not to establish the fact of Howard's death, but to make a basis of an argument.

Cross-examined by Judge Littleford:

"Only knew of Howard's death by hearsay."

Judge Littleford moved to strike out this testimony, but was overruled, and the answer was allowed to stand, the defense noting exceptions to the ruling of the court.

SANFORD HENRY.

Sanford Henry, colored, was examined by Mr. Miller: "Am now confined in the county jail under indictment, implicating me with the murder of Carl Eberington; know Montelle Watha; he is also incarcerated in the county jail; have known him for about six years; saw him at the Franklin bank corner shortly after noon of July 8th; U. G. Craig, Kenneth Black, Lansing Sutton and others were in the group and Watha was there; we were talking about the events of the day; Watha asked Craig how many revolvers he had, and Craig replied that he had none; were standing there probably 20 minutes, and shortly after the patrol wagon passed us; Watha put his question to U. G. Craig; what led up to the question put by Watha to Craig, I don't remember."

Cross-examined by Judge Littleford:

"Craig came to see me at the jail this morning; he comes nearly every day; some strange white man, also came to see me, but had no conversation with him; Mr. Smythe was not there; and I just know Mr. Miller he didn't see Mr. Smythe last, at the time the special grand jury was in session; I spoke to Craig about this testimony either this morning or yesterday afternoon; I don't know exactly when."

"I have been promised nothing by any one in regard to my own prosecution in return for the testimony I have given here."

By Judge Littleford: "Now, Henry, won't you tell the jury which one of the prosecutors you talked to, this morning regarding the testimony you were to give and which you have given?"

"I talked to no one but Mr. Craig this morning; I came directly from the jail to the court house in charge of a deputy sheriff; did not stop in the office of the jail but did for a few moments in Sheriff Slabaugh's court house office."

THOMAS H. JONES.

Ex-Deputy Sheriff Thomas H. Jones was recalled and examined by Mr. Miller: "Heard the colored man speak and from then on the entire time was taken up in the attack on the jail until Eberington was taken out."

Cross-examined by Judge Littleford:

DESPOUDENT OVER ILL HEALTH YOUNG FARMER SUICIDES

Timothy A. Foster of Near Alexandria Shoots Self Throught Heart Using Double Barrel Shot Gun

ALSO GRIEVED OVER THE DEATH OF HIS MOTHER

Left Note to Pastor Making Arrangements for Funeral---Report of Gun Heard by Father Who Discovered Body of Son Lying in Pool of Blood.

After writing and mailing a six-page letter to his pastor, in which he planned his own funeral service, Timothy A. Foster, aged 30, unmarried, living three miles west of Alexandria, suicided Monday afternoon by shooting himself through the heart with a double-barrel shot gun. A cane was used to discharge the weapon.

In the letter which he wrote to his friend, the Rev. Karl B. Alexander, pastor of the Johnstown M. E. church, the young man gave a detailed account of his illness and other difficulties which he claimed were responsible for his deed. The most of the letter is regarded as confidential by the pastor, who refuses to make known its entire contents. However, it is said that young Foster suffered with epileptic attacks and frequently became very despondent.

The discovery of the suicide was made by the young man's father, Albert Foster, with whom he lived, and a neighbor, Milton Forsythe.

About 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, while the elder Foster was feeding his stock, he heard the report of the gun in the house. He immediately returned and attempted to effect an entrance but found all the doors locked. Hastily summoning his neighbor, Mr. Forsythe, the two forced an entrance through a window and were horrified at their discovery.

Young Foster lay in the living room clutching the cane, while the gun laid beside him on the floor mutely telling its tragic story. It was found that life was extinct, but Dr. Laycock of Alexandria was called and an investigation made. The circumstances were such that there was no doubt of suicide. The charge of the one barrel of the gun had entered the body just below the heart, taking an upward course, causing instant death.

The dead man was not known to be a member of any church but was a regular attendant of the Concord Methodist church, of which the Rev. Mr. Alexander is the pastor. The minister and the members of the congregation on several occasions took interest in the young man's welfare, and for this he expressed his gratitude in the letter to Mr. Alexander.

In the letter Foster stated that he was going to meet his mother, and one of the hymns he requested sung at his funeral was "Tell Mother I'll be There." He asked that his friends, several of whom he named, be requested to remember him kindly, spoke in terms of deepest devotion of his dead mother and his sisters, particularly Miss Mae Foster, a government employe at Washington, D. C. He requested also that he be buried in the Concord cemetery beside the body of his mother, and that the funeral be preached by the Rev. Mr. Alexander at the Concord church.

The letter received by the pastor at 5:15 o'clock Monday evening, only about an hour after the suicide, stated that a similar letter had been written to his sister in Washington.

The young man leaves his father, one brother, Albert, Jr., and three sisters, Mrs. Disbennet of near Johnstown, Miss Maud Foster of Centerville, and Miss Mae Foster of Washington, D. C.

The funeral will probably be held Thursday.

NEW TOQUES IN PARISIAN MILLINERY.

There is a new toque that is taking very much with those who do not hesitate to attract attention to themselves, and they are pretty numerous this year. It is said to have been suggested by one of the caps of old Normandy still to be seen on the heads of some peasant women of the Caux district on high days and holidays. To my thinking it is more like the helmet familiar to the eyes of all British subjects as the headpiece of Britannia.

Be this as it may, it has a firm, almost close brim shelving down over the brow and ears into which is set a very tall full crown. The whole is from 12 to 14 inches long—one cannot exactly say "high," because it pokes out as much backwards as up.

A Man's Christmas Shopping.

JUST now a lot of disconsolate looking individuals are wandering around the streets and haunting the shops. They are the men who do not know what Christmas presents to get for some certain people. It is easy for men to buy Christmas presents for children. They just sail into the stores and purchase some toys or a book. All toys and books for children look alike to them. So they just buy anything the salesgirl proposes, unless as a child they have had some preference themselves for some certain thing. In which case, they buy that. Presents for children are easily settled.

They also can get gifts for men without much trouble. A pipe, some cigars—they are quite at home here.

But when it comes to getting women's toggery—well, they are up against it.

If they have an obliging sister, they hand a roll of banknotes over to her and tell her to "go and get the whole blamed shooting match." Or if this easy way of sidestepping the job is not possible, they get sister to tell them what mother wants and mother to tell them what sister wants and then they set forth valiantly to the task of getting these things. They probably come back with a fluffy Paris negligee for mother instead of the sensible blanket-wraps she wanted if they have fallen into the hands of a salesgirl with initiative. And the muff they intended to get sister is transformed into a fur coat—to which sister, however, does not object.

But even this sort of Christmas shopping is not quite so appalling as getting something for their girl friends. These gifts are the stickers. These gifts it is that cause them to haunt shops with a worried, hopeless look, to stand far off and gaze in perplexity at jewelry counters and book shelves, while they are whirled around by the rushing Christmas crowds like straws on the surface of eddying spring freshets, until their heads are dizzy and their minds in confusion.

If the girl has appeared they know what to get her. They have made a first-hand study of her tastes. It is what to get the girls they merely like that is turning their hair gray.

One such man wandered into a large city's most exclusive jewelry and bric-a-brac shop. All about were exquisite trinkets, silverware, rare pottery, bric-a-brac. About a million lovely articles were there that any normal girl would go wild with joy to own. He wandered about helpless, hopeless. He had no more idea of what to send her than if he were on a desert island and had to find something. Finally he chose a china dog because it looked like a dog he once owned. A china dog! And he paid a good round sum for it, too, a sum that would have bought any of the beautiful pottery, the dainty flower vases, the exquisite little silver things for afternoon tea that would have gone straight to the girl's heart.

He did what many a man like him does, chooses with his own tastes as guide, rather than projects himself for the time being into the girl's personality and sees with her eyes.

Men who find the choosing of Christmas gifts a difficult matter are apt to be guided by one of two methods only. They either pick aimlessly from the wealth of goods offered by the shops, believing that anything for a woman will please her. Or as has been said, something that tickles their own fancy is selected. If they would cast their mind back for a little while over what they know of the girl, call to memory her face, her likes and dislikes, try to see her life for a few moments with her eyes, choosing would be exceedingly easy and decidedly satisfactory to both parties. No china dog would go to the girl who loves green pottery or little volumes of verse or some quaint curio from old Japan.

DR. PERCIVAL REACHES CITY IN "BULL DOG"

Famous Detroit Auto Is Out on a 100,000 Mile Stunt and Will Traverse Every State in the Union.

With a total mileage of 17,816 miles to her credit, the celebrated "Bull Dog" arrived in Newark yesterday afternoon in charge of Dr. Chas. G. Percival, editor of Health magazine of New York, and Dick Shadel of Chicago.

Dr. Percival stopped over at the Sherwood for a night's rest, while Shadel pushed on with the car to make as many miles as he could before it became too dark and dangerous as the "Bull Dog" is already "three days behind its schedule" owing to the car having been caught in the heavy snow storm of last week at Hagerstown, Md., and the two men are endeavoring by taking turns at driving in night and day shifts, to catch up with the lost time entailed upon them by the heavy snows and drifts met with in Maryland.

Dr. Percival will meet the car at Columbus tonight and take his turn at the wheel while Shadel will rest and pick the car up again.

The "Bull Dog" is out to do 100,000 miles and so far has travelled into thirty states, two territories, the District of Columbia, Canada and Mexico.

The two men are carrying letters from President Taft and the mayors of Detroit, Boston and Portland, to the chief state and city executives en route and expect to be gone a full year more before they finish their appointed task. The car will go to Alaska, Porto Rico, Cuba, Panama and the Sandwich Islands before the trip is finished.

The "Bull Dog" is a 1910 model Abbott and first saw the light of day last July when it was shipped to Kansas City, Mo., to the agent who used it for a demonstrating car for over 6,000 miles, after which it completed its run to Colorado Springs and returned a distance of 2,300 miles after which it left Denver, Colo., on October 10, for Detroit, which city it arrived at on Nov. 10, making its total mileage exactly 15,000 miles. The car left Detroit, the Griswold hotel, on Nov. 17. The trip as scheduled goes to Dayton, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, Chattanooga, Atlanta, Jacksonville, Savannah, and up the Atlantic coast to New York city to the opening of the automobile show at the Grand Central Palace on New Year's eve. After a week at the automobile show the "Bull Dog" will go up New York state through Canada back to Detroit and from Detroit to Chicago to the automobile show in that city and from Chicago to New Orleans across the state of Texas to the City of Mexico and from Mexico to southern California up the Pacific coast to Vancouver and back to Detroit through all the principal provinces of the Canadian empire going through every state in the United States, Mexico and Canada. In its journey the car will have crossed the continent twice and gone completely around the border of the United States and will have travelled a distance of 50,000 miles or one-half of its required distance.

A BIT OF ADVICE.

First—Don't Delay. Second—Don't Experiment.
If you suffer from backache, headache or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. The kidneys are calling for help. Slight symptoms of kidney trouble are not foremen of more serious conditions. They should be given attention before it is too late.

BOARD OF TRADE ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR 1911

MONTHLY MEETINGS OF MEMBERS ARE TO BE HELD THE COMING YEAR.

January 4 Membership Day — First Meeting Jan. 12—Laying Plans for Year's Work.

The board of directors of the Newark Board of Trade, Messrs. James F. Irwin, Fred C. Evans, Frederic M. Black, W. P. Miner, W. C. Wells, Chas. W. Miller, Albert A. Stasel, John J. Carroll, Carl Norpell, W. H. Mazey and C. H. Spencer, met Monday evening and organized by electing the following named officers for the ensuing year:

President, C. H. Spencer.
 Vice President, James F. Irwin.
 Secretary, W. C. Wells.
 Assistant Secretary, L. B. Richards.
 Treasurer, Chas. W. Miller.

The Board is planning a campaign for 1911 and has a number of matters under consideration. In several of which were mentioned in the reports submitted at the recent annual meeting. The Board intends to hold monthly meetings of the entire organization during the coming year, beginning in January and it is hoped that a consolidation of the Board of Trade and the Business Men's Association can be effected in as much as the objects of the two organizations are practically the same. A committee from each organization will meet within a few days to consider the proposed merger.

A line of action for 1911 was discussed at Monday evening's meeting and as a basis for operation the Board decided to increase the membership so as to create a more widespread interest in the effort that will be put forth for the benefit of all Newark. With this end in view, Wednesday, January 4th was set for membership day. On that day several committees will go to work and solicit memberships. The following week the first monthly meeting of the Board of Trade membership will take place. The meeting will be held at 6 o'clock on the evening of January 12th (Thursday) and after dinner has been served the proposed campaign will be outlined.

In many respects Newark is the best town in Ohio and Ohio is the best state in the union. Newark can be made to grow and prosper as never before providing the people get together and work for the good of all. Many things should be done and will be done if the right effort is made, but little can be accomplished unless there is a good, strong organization. The Newark Board of Trade should have 500 members and 500 men actively interested in doing something for the welfare of the city can accomplish anything they set out to do. The annual membership fee was reduced from $10 to $5 at the last meeting so as to enable everybody who wants to see Newark develop and prosper join the organization.

It will save the committee's time if you will telephone the office of the Board of Trade (new phone 991) and ask to have your name enrolled as a member. Send in your own name and then get one or two of your friends to do likewise.

There is plenty of work for the Board to do in 1911, but comparatively little can be done unless the people are willing to do their part. The first step is to show sympathy with the movement by having your name enrolled. No business man, no property owner can make a better investment of $5 than by taking a membership. Everybody is invited to join. Be a booster for Newark.

The First Real Cost-Test Ever Made Automobile vs. Horse

"Maxwell" per passenger mile—1  $\frac{1}{10}$  cts.
 Horse and Buggy, passenger mile—2  $\frac{1}{2}$  cts.

THE ECONOMY CAR

"Perfectly Simple—Simply Perfect"

Maxwell Model Q-11, 4 cyl. 22 H. P.—$900

A PUBLIC test of the Maxwell Car and a horse and buggy on the streets of New York and its suburbs, under actual conditions of traffic, has just been completed.

Automobile, 1 $\frac{1}{10}$ cents Expenses stop when not in use.

Based on 10-Mile Trip

Gasoline	.122
Oil	.014
Grease	.003
Tire wear	.021
Depreciation	.039
Cost per mile—two persons	.066
Cost per mile—per person	.033

To operate an automobile the cost is based on gasoline at 20c a gallon; oil, 15c a gallon; grease, 12c a pound; depreciation and tires, .022 a mile; average cost of gasoline per mile, .022 (figuring 16 2/3 miles to the gallon); not including storage. The average of 16 2/3 miles to the gallon of gasoline is based on tests of the Maxwell used in the economy test and is extremely low.

Horse and Buggy, 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents Expenses continue when not in use.

Based on 10-Mile Trip

10 lbs. hay	.025
12 quarts oats	.025
100 lbs. straw per month, daily pro rata	.005
Horseshoeing—daily pro rata	.005
Tire wear—daily pro rata	.002
Depreciation	.002
Cost per mile—two persons	.052
Cost per mile—per person	.026

To operate a horse and buggy the cost is based on hay at $21.00 a ton; oats at 60c a bushel; straw at $1.50 cwt.; horseshoeing, $2.50 per month; grease, 12c a month; depreciation horse and buggy, .002 a mile; horse, buggy and harness, costing $25.00 and lasting ten years, standing not included.

It Proves Beyond Dispute

That the automobile is undoubtedly an economy. That its low cost of operation surprises even its advocates. That the extravagance of the motor car is voluntary and unnecessary. That its pleasures are within the reach of men of moderate means. That it is an indispensable factor in transportation and a utility. That it is an implement which, if properly employed, will increase the earning power of man, conserve his time, extend his field and support his hands.

That the automobile industry, practically unknown ten years ago and now the fourth greatest industry in the United States, is fully vindicated and proven economically sound.

That the Maxwell car is the standard of that industry; the efficient, economical, reliable, utility automobile, as near perfection as human intelligence and human handiwork can make it under modern conditions.

Test Officially Sanctioned by the American Automobile Ass'n

We invited the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association to conduct this test in order that it might be in absolutely disinterested control. The board appointed judges to attest its results.

The two vehicles ran each day over a predetermined route. Each ran continuously for six hours, regarded as a normal day's work. Account was kept of every item of expense entailed. The needs of each vehicle were supplied at roadside stores at current market prices.

Each day a different route was laid out, in order to cover all conditions of city and suburban traffic and all sorts of roads. One day they covered the densely congested districts of the city; another day they ran in infrequently traveled suburban roads. Everything was done to make the test normal, actual, eminently fair and conclusive.

The Results Attested by Its Judges

The automobile cost  $\frac{1}{10}$  of a cent per passenger mile to operate.

The horse and buggy cost  $2\frac{1}{2}$  of a cent per passenger mile.

The car covered  $2\frac{1}{2}$  times the distance traveled by the horse.

The car averaged  $76\frac{2}{3}$  miles a day at a cost of \$1.03.

The horse averaged  $32\frac{2}{3}$  miles a day at a cost of 95 cents.

The car required  $5\frac{1}{2}$  gallons of gasoline and a pint of lubricant daily.

The horse needed 12 quarts of oats and 20 pounds of hay per day.

The other expenses—tire cost, up-keep and depreciation or similar charges brought the total cost of the car up to  $1\frac{1}{10}$  cents per passenger mile, as shown in the table above.

The other incident expenses of maintaining a horse and buggy brought its total cost up to  $2\frac{1}{2}$  cents per passenger mile as shown in the table above.

This is our answer to the charge made that the automobile is an extravagance. This proves that it is an economic factor that would save millions if the Maxwell were everywhere substituted for the horse and buggy.

We have always been unable to fill orders promptly in the spring and summer. In order to stimulate early season business all these cars sold during the next 30 days will be

MURDER TRIAL

had stated that some witnesses were expected from Cleveland, was somewhat of a surprise to those who have been following the case, but curiosity was disappointed rather than any other point of interest.

WITNESSES FOR DEFENSE.

The first witness for the defense was Miss Kathryn Simonds, who was examined by Mr. Charles L. Flory. He asked the defendant, "Do you know the man in the crowd who was with you on the night of July 8th last?" and he was answered: "I know his reputation as to peace and quietness and this reputation is good."
E. T. Rugg, the halter manufacturer, and a director of the Licking County bank, was examined by Mr. C. L. Flory. "I don't know whether I have the means of knowing Watha's reputation for peace and quietness in the community. I know Watha and I think I know his general reputation for peace and quietness, but I don't know if I have the means of knowing his general reputation."

The witness answered several questions put by Mr. Flory as to Watha's conduct about a boarding house, to which the state objected, on the grounds that his seeing Watha about a boarding house did not qualify the witness to testify as to his general reputation.
Mr. Smythe stated that the state did not object to proving character as distinguished from reputation, and the court overruled the state's objection and Mr. Rugg stated that as far as he knew his character was good.

Cross-examined by Mr. Smythe: "Defendant did some work for me about my automobile; don't know of any time defendant was arrested except this time; don't know that he lives with a woman to whom he is not married, and that he has been arrested on several occasions for beating this woman; know that defendant is addicted to the use of liquor, and is considered quarrelsome and dangerous when under the influence of liquor."

Re-direct by Mr. Flory: "Defendant has been Senator of the Licking County bank and also of Assembly Hall, which the bank owns."

C. L. King, examined by Mr. Flory: "I work for the Parish company, just across the street from the county jail. I knew defendant by sight and saw him on the evening of July 8th last; he was making a speech and asked if there were any Eagles in the crowd to take off their hats, and then asked them to hold up their hands, and again urged them to hold up both hands; there was a number of women in the crowd, which cheered and shouted, and there was considerable noise throughout the crowd; I didn't pay any particular attention to the crowd or as to whether there was cheering or laughing."

Objected to by the state but overruled.

Cross-examined by Mr. Smythe: "Arrived at jail about 8 o'clock, when defendant was making his speech; large crowd was there; don't know what he said before I got there; did not hear crowd say anything as to going into the jail or getting that fellow; heard crowd cheering."

Laura Allen, colored, examined by Mr. Flory: "Lived in Newark all my life. 65 years, live in Mr. Watha's house as a housekeeper; he boarded and roomed at my house, on the 8th of July last, Watha was at the house and painting the house; at 2 o'clock in the afternoon he went up to the city to get some turpentine; he came back at 5 o'clock and then went back to the city; I was in bed when he returned and it was about 8:45 and I had to get up to let him in, and asked him what time it was; I went to bed early that evening, probably about 7:30; I keep rooming and some of them had come in before Watha; I should think that I had been in bed about two hours when Watha came to the door, about 20 minutes after Watha came, a woman came to the door to see me about some sewing and she said it was;" (objected to and ruled out as to telling what hour it was.)
"After Watha came home he did not again leave the premises as far as I know."

Cross-examined by Mr. Smythe: "Am a sister of James and Ernest Costley; Watha has roomed at my home about two years; have visited Watha at the jail every other day and carried him dinner; told the jailer that I was his wife; Watha has been broken and Watha did it; police came to my house twice and arrested Watha, once on account of a disturbance; on July 8th Watha was painting in the morning; don't know whether he had been drinking or not; ladder that he was on broke; I never said within the last 48 hours that Watha was drunk that day and fell off the ladder but I won't testify to the fact; don't remember of saying to anybody that Watha was drunk on July 8th."

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The first witness called by the defense at the afternoon session was Harry Hampton, colored, who was examined by Mr. Flory: "Am a porter at the Star Hotel; with defendant July 8th last; was home that evening; took a dose of quinine at 8 o'clock that night and shortly after that hour I heard Watha's voice; I was taking medicine every two hours, and had taken a dose at 7 o'clock and one at 9 o'clock and that was the last dose I took until the following morning."

CHAUNCEY NEAR.

Chauncey Near, an insurance man, was examined by Mr. Flory: "I came down town about 7 o'clock on the evening of July 8th; I noticed a crowd about the county jail and went down there; saw a bunch of people there and they appeared to be afraid to go near the jail; saw the defendant there and a bunch of fellows put him up on an embankment and told him to make a speech; they put him up there forcibly; he was head and shoulders above the crowd; the crowd yelled 'make a speech,' 'make a speech' and he seemed to be unwilling."

The state here objected to what it seemed to him that the colored man was about to do or say and Judge Mansfield listened to the argument by Mr. Miller, Mr. Smythe, Mr. Flory and Judge Littleford as to the admissibility of this kind of testimony.

Judge Littleford read from a case reported in the forty-third Ohio State Reports in which the rule was laid down that a witness could testify that a person was insane, drunk or in fear and that the witness's answer was responsive to the question, and clearly within the rule which allowed the witness to give his opinion as to the mental state of the defendant. The question was withdrawn in the form in which it was asked and witness continued as follows:

"The crowd forced him up on the elevation, and he kept shaking his head and telling the men that he could not make a speech; he started out by saying 'I am an American citizen, and law abiding, I am opposed to mob violence and also to cold blooded murder; I would like everybody to show due respect to one of the citizens of Newark who has been murdered today' and the crowd then yelled to the negro 'call for Eagles' and then the defendant called for all Eagles present to hold up their hands; I was about ten feet from him, and people near me hooted, jeered and laughed; some one said 'stuff a rag into his mouth, him with a brick,' and some one near me said 'I would like to see something done, but I wouldn't have a nigger lead me."

Cross-examined by Mr. Smythe: "I got to the county jail about 7 o'clock and about half an hour afterward the defendant made a speech; don't know what the man meant who said 'I would like to see something done'; heard Watha say 'I want everybody to show respect for the man who has been murdered in cold blood, but don't remember that he said anything about the man in the jail who had done the murder; met one of the attorneys or the defense during the noon recess, and told him I knew something that would help the defendant; have no interest or prejudice in the case; talked to Mr. Flory at the noon hour and asked him when he wanted to see me as a witness as I was very busy."

Judge Littleford objected to the introduction of this testimony, as it was an improper introduction of an attorney questioning a witness before he was put on the stand; the objection was overruled and the answer was allowed to stand.

In answer to Mr. Flory's questioning the witness detailed the conversation as held between him and the attorney. Mr. Miller moved the court to instruct the jury that the conversation between the attorney for the defense and the witness was perfectly proper, but was incompetent as testimony and the court so instructed.

MONDAY AFTERNOON.

JAMES S. SHERIDAN, ex-chief of police, now juvenile officer to the Probate Judge, was examined by Mr. Miller.

"Was around and about the county jail between 6:30 and 7 o'clock on the evening of July 8th last; when I first got there there were about one hundred or one hundred and fifty people about the jail, but doing nothing; I came up to the park and went back about 8 o'clock; the crowd was increased to about five or six hundred, noticed women and children in the crowd; don't know exactly how many children were in the crowd, which kept increasing all the time; heard Watha make a speech on canal bank; I was about thirty or thirty-five feet from him; heard him talking to the crowd; at one time he called on 'brother Eagles' or 'Eagles'; he said that Newark had the best mayor, chief of police and police force in Ohio, and that Bill Howard was too good a man to be shot; the crowd was packed up closely around the defendant, but saw no children near him; at first I thought the crowd was making fun of the colored man; the crowd immediately around the colored man hooted and made fun of him as he appeared to get mixed up in his talk."

Cross-examined by Judge Littleford: "The colored man, called on all Eagles to raise their hands and there were a number put up their hands; was talking to John Sullivan, who is an Eagle, and we laughed at him as to a colored man belonging to the Eagles; and I knew there were no colored members of the order; thought the crowd was making fun of the colored man and I took the whole proceedings to be a joke; heard defendant say to Eagles 'come on'; don't know when William Howard died; heard a white man talk after the colored man, but don't know what he said."

Re-direct by Mr. Miller: "There were some in the crowd who cheered the negro, others made fun of him; don't know if negro, when he was speaking, knew of Howard's death; was around about the jail after the speech was made and until Etherington was hanged; crowd went down to Panhandle depot about 9:20; I went down there too, and came back when the train pulled out; don't know how long it took to get to Etherington."

Re-cross examination by Judge Littleford: "When I got back from the depot the crowd had not yet broken into the jail, but stood in jail yard with the sheriff; the bars on the office window had been broken."

ISAAC N. ANDREWS.

Isaac N. Andrews recalled by defense for cross-examination: "It was about twenty or twenty-five minutes after the colored man spoke that the crowd attacked the jail."
LEWIS SMITH.
Lewis Smith examined by Mr. Miller: "Was in Newark July 8th last; saw William Howard shot; I was with Mr. Howard and went with him up to the fair ground; saw Etherington there and Howard hit him with a black jack and Etherington shot Howard and started to run towards Hebron; he was stopped by two fellows who got off the interurban car and was taken back to the 'Last Chance' saloon where the patrol got him."

No cross-examination.
Mr. Miller stated to the court that except three witnesses from Cleveland who would be present Tuesday morning, the State's case was closed, and after giving the usual admonition to the jury Judge Mansfield adjourned court until 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Draws Life Sentence.

Judge Newark, who has been holding court in Mt. Vernon, handed out several heavy sentences to violators of the law. Among the prisoners was Charles Suttles, who was tried and found guilty of ravishing a girl under twelve years of age. A motion for a new trial was filed, which was argued to the court. After hearing all the arguments Judge Newark overruled the motion and sentenced Suttles to life imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary at hard labor.
